

Mohamed Abaza, PE, CBCP, LEED AP, CEM

Title: Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer

Education

M.S. / 2002 / Mechanical Engineering / New York University Tandon School of Engineering / Brooklyn, New York

B.S. / 1999 / Mechanical Engineering / New York Institute of Technology / Old Westbury, New York

Professional Registrations

PE - 2015 MD #50302; 2022 / AEE Certified Building Commissioning Professional (CBCxP) #2098;
2009 / LEED AP; 2012 / AEE Certified Energy Manager (CEM) #20200; 2015 / AEE Green Building
Engineer (GBE) #811; 2018 / BPI Multi Family Building Analyst (MFBA) #5062341

Years with Firm: 2
Years with Other Firms: 26

Professional Experience

Mr. Abaza is the Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Co-Owner of Superior Construct Group. He has 28 years of experience in HVAC design, Commissioning, Retro-Commissioning, and Re-Commissioning, project Management and Construction Management.

His expertise is with Residential Multi-family ASHRAE Level 1 Energy Audits, Residential Multi-family Inspections that included Physical inspections, technical evaluation, visual inspections, exigent health and safety standards, and physical inspection report generation Central Plant design, Central Plant optimization, Central plant gut retrofit/renovation, Central Plant O&M, Energy Modeling, LEED Admin, Energy Auditing (ASHRAE Level I, II, III), Energy Retrofits and Facility Condition Assessments, Sustainable development and Energy Master plan development and implementation, Equipment Inventory Identification and Deficiency Generation, construction project management and cost estimating, Quality Control Management, Post construction Measurement and Verification and equipment Commissioning, BMS and EMS troubleshooting.

APAH Ballston CUMC

Earthcraft Fundamental Commissioning services for the construction of a new multi-family property. Project is located in Alexandria VA, seven floors with Church on 1st floor. Total building square footage is 278K

325 Vine Street - Washington, DC

LEED commissioning services for the construction of new multi-family property at 325 Vine Street. The project is located at 325 Vine Street, N.W. Washington, DC and is located in a complex of multiple buildings between Vine street and Carroll St. NW, including the main building at 325 Vine St. N.W. which is the subject of this report and buildings 300 and 306 (6 and 7 unit multi-family buildings) on Carroll St N.W. and Bldg 304 (restaurant) on Carroll St N.W. 325 Vine st. N.W. is a 6 level, 117,270 sq ft, 159 unit, multi-family apartment building. The building cellar level spaces consist of a parking garage, pump room, electrical rooms, Engineer's office, Storage room and a generator room. The basement level houses apartment units, a gym, mail room, offices, work room and a conference room. Levels 1 through 5 contain apartment units. Penthouse level (level 5) also includes amenity space with roof top seating areas. The roof accommodates condensing units, solar panels, rooftop HVAC units and green roofs

Benjamin Bannekar High School Net Zero - Washington, DC

LEED Fundamental and Enhanced Commissioning as well as Building Envelope Commissioning services for a magnet high school located in Washington, DC. In 1980, the school was converted to a magnet high school for academics. The project adhered to LEED V4 that was provided, and sustainable design consultation to achieve Net Zero Energy target as well as Geothermal Wells and PV system,

Talbot County Public Schools Chapel District Elementary School

LEED Fundamental and Enhanced Commissioning as well as Building Envelope Commissioning services for upgrade and addition to existing school The project adhered to LEED V4 that was provided, and sustainable design consultation to achieve Net Zero Energy target as well as Geothermal Wells, HVAC systems included ERVs, VRF, and Hot gas reheat. 61,379 SF,